

ENGLISH

- The Canterbury Tales
- Analyse and recognise themes in the stories.
- Create own Tales based on characters in Mediaeval life.
- Role play
- Range of writing styles.

SCIENCE

- Recognise that living things have changed over time and that fossils provide information about living things that lived millions of years ago
- Understand that offspring are not identical to their parents, leading to natural selection
- Identify how animals and plants are adapted to suit their environment and how adaptation leads to evolution

HISTORY

- Mediaeval England.
- Understanding castle defences.
- Understand how the Feudal System worked.
- Mining through the ages- iron.
- Magna Carta- King John (Links to British values).
- Murder of Thomas Beckett – Links to Canterbury Tales.

GEOGRAPHY

Detailed knowledge of location and place within the UK

- Use field work to observe measure and record the human and physical features of the Forest of Dean compared to Walton on Thames.
- Compare principal economic activities of the two places
- Use sketch maps, plans, graphs and digital technologies
- Use OS maps to investigate landform, landscape and human activity.
- Plan and walk a day's journey using OS map and compass.

MUSIC

- Songs related to topic and Year 6 production.
- Composition, group arrangements using xylophones, glockenspiels, booms and bells.

Year 6 St Briavels The Forest of Dean

MATHS LINKS

- Maps: scale, proportion, co-ordinates

ART & DESIGN

- Illuminated lettering
- Calligraphy

COMPUTING

- Use FLOWOL to create simple algorithms, correcting any errors as and when they occur

LANGUAGES

- Days of the week
- Today's date
- Months of the year
- Simple questions such as, where do you live? How old are you?

PE LINKS

- Athletics
- Cricket and Rounders

DESIGN & TECHNOLOGY

- Designing and making a speaker.

RE

- What do your clothes say about you?
- How people demonstrate their values and commitments through what they wear.
- Links to British values.
- SRE

OUTDOOR & OFF-SITE

- Residential to St Briavels.