Muslims believe:

- There is no God but God (Allah) and that he is without equal.
- That God is one (Tawhid.)
- Reading the Qur'an is an act of worship as well as a source of guidance: it should be read in the original Arabic.
- The Qur'an is Allah's final revelation to humanity and was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) in Arabic.
- Following the guidance from the Qur'an is of high importance.
- That the mosque is a place of worship and learning is led by an imam.
- That 'salah' is part of 'ibadah' (worship) and that in salah, Muslims worship and remember Allah.
- That when they pray, men and women pray separately (to avoid distraction) and they stand shoulder to shoulder on a level floor to show that they are equal before Allah as part of the Ummah (community).

The Qur'an:

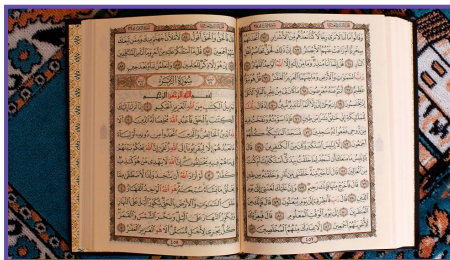

Diagram of a Mosque

- Mosque- a place of worship for Muslims
- Adhan- call to prayer
- Tawhid- the oneness of God
- Ummah- the worldwide Muslim community
- Community- a group of people who share things in common such as beliefs.
- Salah- an Arabic term meaning prayer
- Shahada - Muslim declaration of belief that 'There is only one God and Prophet Muhammed is his messenger' – this is whispered into the ear of newborn babies.
- Prophet Muhammad- (peace be upon him)-believed by most Muslims to be the last and final messenger sent by God.
